About Les Bistronomes

Where does our name come from?

Les Bistronomes (pron. Leh-bistro-nom) is an amalgamation of the words: Bistro and Gastronomy (the relationship between food and culture). It also derives from the movement, “La Bistronomie” which started in France in the 1990’s during a time when most of the Michelin star restaurants found it hard to survive due to the financial crisis in Europe. As a result, little bistros emerged upholding the same quality of food and service, but the atmosphere became more casual and relaxed. Simultaneously, the chefs’ passion for gastronomy remained strong. Such a transformation boosted the industry and helped the French to survive the financial crisis!

The origins of Les Bistronomes Restaurant

Les Bistronomes Restaurant was founded in 2014 by two French men with a desire to extend Bistronomie to Canberra. Originally located in Braddon for four years, the restaurant has since moved to the community suburb of Campbell in October 2019 where Clément Chauvin has become the sole owner and executive chef.

Our ethos has always been to create good food, good service in a homely, relaxed atmosphere. We strive to deliver this every day.

Welcome to Les Bistronomes!

Clément Chauvin

His journey / Son voyage

The early years / La jeunesse

Born in Paris in 1983, Clément moved to Lyon when he was 13 years old. Lyon was a food revelation; the markets, the culture and the produce - to this day it remains the gastronomic capital of France.

At 15, he decided to start a career as a chef against his family's will. His love for food was so strong that he travelled to Thonon-Les-Bains - a town overlooking Lake Geneva - where he boarded for three years to undergo his hospitality training.

Less than two weeks after graduating, Clément took on his first job as a Commis Chef at PIC (a 3-star Michelin restaurant) in Valence, France. Unsurprisingly, the standard was high and particularly difficult for an 18-year-old! He decided to return to Lyon where he would become inspired by the Bouchon Lyonnais tradition - a more simple and cultural cuisine.

The learning phase / L'apprentissage

After gaining confidence in his cooking technique, Clément joined chef, Frédéric Côte (former Executive Chef of Daniel Boulud) at Le Caro de Lyon. His creativity blossomed at this luxurious brasserie before he tackled once again fine dining - this time at Nicolas Lebec, (a 2-star Michelin restaurant). Nicolas was Clément's most influential chef mentor, who taught him how to use seasonal produce, technique and ingenuity to meet Michelin star standards.

On the road again / De retour sur la route

At 22, Clément wanted to travel, this time to London to improve his English (which was not great). He brought his résumé to the back door of Gordon Ramsay's Claridge's (a 1-star Michelin restaurant) and started from the bottom of the kitchen again. Six months later, he was promoted to Chef de Partie. A year later, Clément had worked his way through most sections of the kitchen when he decided to leave to explore Australia!

Welcome to Australia / Bienvenue en Australie

Clément landed in Sydney where he found Restaurant Balzac, owned and operated by head chef, Matt Kemp. The atmosphere in the kitchen was very different to what he had been used to so he jumped at an advertisement to work in a small French Bistro. Located in Neutral Bay, Bistro

Paris allowed Clément to take on his first head chef position of which he loved! That same year, he scored a whopping 14.5 in the Australia Good Food Guide! Two years later, after gaining Australian sponsorship, Clément had his first son. In an effort to be closer to his Australian family, he moved to Canberra.

The Capital / La capitale

Canberra welcomed his cooking with open arms. After six months at Sage Restaurant, he won Best Chef of the Year by the Australian Hospitality Awards, in addition to Best Restaurant of the Year by the Restaurant and Catering Awards. He remained for two years in Gorman house and then moved to Water's Edge.

Today / Aujourd'hui

Fast forward a few years and Clément has become the sole owner and Executive Chef of multi-award-winning restaurant, Les Bistronomes.
